

Holland Badger Ford

1941 - 2014

Birth

Rosalia Badger Ford and Hugh John Ford welcomed their sixth child and third son on the 24th of July 1941 in Centerville, Utah. Rosalia was 36 and Hugh was 40. They had been married for almost 15 years.

World History – 24 July 1941

On July 24, Tokyo decided to strengthen its position in terms of its invasion of China by moving through Southeast Asia. Given that France had long occupied parts of the region, and Germany, a Japanese ally, now controlled most of France through Petain's puppet government, France "agreed" to the occupation of its Indo-China colonies.

Centerville, Utah 1941

Centerville was a small, primarily agricultural community located in Davis County. The population was around 900 residents. Like many towns in Utah during that era, Centerville relied heavily on agriculture as the main industry. Farmers in the area cultivated crops such as hay, grain, vegetables, and fruits. Livestock farming, particularly dairy farming, was also prominent.
